LYRICS:

The Sun

Sun, sun, sun,
Is a miracle man,
Yeah, we run, we run, we run,
For the light.

Sun, sun, sun, gives you everything man,
Yeah, we run, we run, we run from the night.

And when we get to the bottom of the riddle,
That is human life,
Still we'll run, we'll run, we'll run,
For the light.

And when you're stuck in the middle of a winter,
And it's cold as ice,
You've got to stick to believing,
That it's gonna give you twice as nice.

Sun, sun, sun,
Is the everything man,
Yeah, we run, we run, we run,
From the night.

And when you're stuck in the middle of a winter,
And it's cold as ice,
You've got to stick to believing,
That it's gonna give you twice as nice.

Sun, sun, sun.
(repeat).
