LYRICS:

Here It Comes

Here it comes,
You're coming down,
And there won't be a better time,
To get your spirits down.
And here it comes,
You're coming round,
And there won't be a better time.

I'm never coming down again,
I'm never coming down again.
It's true,
Oh Lord, you know,
It's true,
It's true,
I'm never coming down again.

Here it comes,
You're coming down again,
And there won't be a better time,
To get your spirits down.
And here it comes,
You're coming round,
And there won't be a better time.

There won't be a better time,
There won't be a better time.
